

Brittany Brannon crowned Miss Arizona USA 2011

On November 21st, 2010, Brittany Dawn Brannon was crowned Miss Arizona USA 2011. The Miss Universe Organization, owned by Donald Trump, will crown the next Miss USA live from Las Vegas in the spring of 2011 on the NBC Network.

Brittany will represent the State of Arizona as she pursues her dream of becoming Miss USA 2011. Brittany grew up in Scottsdale, Arizona and is the proud daughter of Mark and Cindy Brannon and sister to Tiffany and Brian Brannon. Brittany is currently a senior at Pepperdine University where she is double majoring in Broadcast News and Art History. She is the head anchor on NewsWaves at Pepperdine University, and her ultimate goal is to become Lead Anchor in one of New York's top news agencies. Brittany enjoys playing the piano and violin. She has also taken classes abroad at Oxford University and Cambridge University and the SACI School of Art in Florence, Italy. Brittany was the 2007 Miss Teen America. Brittany is also involved in politics, having spent a summer in Washington, DC interning for two United States Senators.

To learn more about Brittany and book appearances please contact Cindy Brannon at cbran25@cox.net or 602-828-0367.